Now on your PC, launch the Windows Disk Drive. If you are using a Mac or PC, you will first need to access the drive (disk). When you are ready, go back to the MacDrive setup where you can click to connect the. This is my first time trying this coop as it is located in very hot climate. Both of my local feed stores suggested to purchase a double door cabinet with a removable top so that the fresh food can be removed to the outside and to keep the flies away. I purchased it and it has been working very well except that there is no way that I can remove the top inside. In fact, all the wood is glued and it is impossible to open the top from inside. Any suggestions as to how to best remedy this situation? 01-15-2002 01:42 PM docd Orbin, This cabinet type if I understand right has removable vents. On your cabinet the vents will be in the outer door. This will allow fresh air into the area to keep the temperature cooler. 01-15-2002 01:31 PM Orbin Coop with Removable Canopy, orbin I believe this is the kind of coop I have. I have been very happy with it so far but they always were expensive. If they were a little more affordable I would definitely buy another. 01-14-2002 07:43 PM ThePineapple Coop with Removable Canopy, orbin Quote: Originally posted by Orbin I really like the coop. Is it easy to clean? How do you get fresh clean or dirt out of the eggs once they are laid. Thanks, ThePineapple 01-13-2002 02:43 PM KenR Coop with Removable Canopy, orbin Thanks for all the kind words. And I'm sure there are about 100 questions I could ask. But I guess that's what this is really all about. If there is anything that I can do to help you out, shoot me an email. Ken 01-13-2002 02:42 PM
