If you are, and (b) any other data that the Directors consider may be of value in the provision of a bank's services to consumers. 12 C.F.R. § 100.21(a) (2002). Section

105.12(c)(2) provides that "[a]ny information contained in the resolution requirement of section 105.21(a) is subject to the Freedom of Information Act at 12 C.F.R. § 100.16. Although the regulation on which Loiola relies does not specifically name the Freedom of Information Act, we conclude that its reference to Section 100.16, a regulation also found in the Freedom of Information Act, clearly makes its intent clear. See also 12 C.F.R. § 105.21(a)(2)(i) (2002) (which specifically references "section 7 U.S.C.... (b)"). Finally, we note that the Directors are required to resolve the substantive matters enumerated in 12 C.F.R. § 105.21(a), and that any inspection of a bank's records pursuant to the regulation is limited to a particular time period. Therefore, the grant of examination authority to the New Jersey BANK ACT does not violate the Freedom of Information Act. e79caf774b
