43 The 2017-2020 National EMS Survey collected data on paramedics and EMS leaders in all fifty states and for the first time includes healthcare providers (primarily physicians, nurses, physician assistants, EMS transport personnel and EMS leaders). For the first time, a complete 48-page book also contains a full cross-sectional TOC (Table of Contents), furthering the utility of the EMS Survey for both healthcare providers and EMS leaders. (More on the EMS Survey can be found at: The study aimed to evaluate the incidence of rib fractures in severe trauma and the need for rib stabilization. Will Being a Grandparent Lead to Retirement Better Than Saving for Retirement? It's not unusual to dream of retiring at a time of your choice. However, before you go off on your own into the sunset, you'll need to save for retirement. If you're thinking about retiring in ten or twenty years, chances are good you're going to be happy with your savings rate. However, your success may very well depend on what's going on in the world economy and in your own personal finances right now. The World is Not Remarkably Strong While "the world is not going to end," some serious economic challenges are unfolding as we write this article. In just the past two weeks, we've seen a German shocker, the stock market drop precipitously for the first time in a long time, a massive weakness in China's economy, and a real estate bubble in Spain. Sure, the U.S. economy is still growing at a good pace, but none of these other markets are doing nearly as well. If you're getting nervous about being a grandparent, none of this is news to you. In fact)
