i do not see the precue player in the my computer folder. i do not know if it has been removed or if there is another hidden folder i should go to. if anyone does know i would appreciate a pointer in the right direction. looks like it might be a tv tuner. only 3 components in the device manager, hdmi cec, hdmi cec and a usb gamepad. the hdmi cec & usb gamepad may be for a tv tuner. i'm a little iffy about the hdmi cec device. maybe it can be used as a dvd player. that's fine but i would rather not. since it's a media renderer, that leaves out the blu-ray option. odd that there is no minidisc option either. might just be a burned hole. i took a short video on this. (i hope to do a longer video one day. lol) you can see that i don't have a audio cable, so no way to listen to what i am playing through the h10 except for the small screen. it is for only 720px with my geforce 6600gto. i just bought it for it's size and power. fun for racing ish games. you can now follow the link to our iphone tunes transfer step by step instructions for your usb cable with your iphone, ipod touch and/or ipad that works great. if you look into our other iriver page that has all the iriver mp3 player drivers for your iriver mp3 player, you can find a direct link on our home page. that is <http://www.driverguide.com/all-iriver-mp3-players-drivers-2000-to-latest-with-videos.htm> microduino can also set up a temporary account for you to use when you install proprietary software. "another thing that confused us is that it comes with default diagnostic software that we didn't realize we could uninstall." if you use a mac, however, you won't need to do anything. it will use the system preferences/add-ons pane to install the correct mp3 player drivers. 5ec8ef588b
