... Ever since the day a man came into my life who, to be honest, never believed in God, but treated me with such tenderness and care as a child, I began to think that I was not completely hopeless. Or maybe he was just jealous of me and was not happy that he had so little time to be with me, that he didn't have the opportunity to take care of me? Of course, he probably thinks I can be so much better than I am, and he should be there for me, helping me.
