While many of the beach rentals only have electricity and plumbing on the first floor (beyond the doors of the master suite) and offer full kitchen kitchens, the popularity of the cabins is growing.

They offer terrific ocean views, security, and many more perks than a hotel room. Beach Safety is given a top priority when the storm is approaching. So, the beach board makes a contingency plan to close the beach if necessary. At the same time, there is always a pool on the premises and a team of lifeguards that are trained in rescuing persons in the water. In the case of a high-wind warning, the beach board also roams the beach with an electric bull horn, to alert those on the beach to take shelter.
